

A 3D rendered scene featuring a translucent cyan humanoid figure standing in the center of a narrow hallway. The hallway is formed by dark brick walls on both sides and a light-colored tiled floor. On the left wall, there is a large, abstract painting with dark, swirling colors. On the right wall, there is a smaller, colorful abstract painting with red, yellow, and blue. The figure is facing away from the camera, and its right arm is slightly extended. A semi-transparent orange rectangular bar is visible at the bottom center of the frame. A white rectangular box with the word "Paused" in black text is positioned to the right of the figure's head.
